CLASS HISTORY

On a bright sunny day on September 5, 1932 thirty-one eager, open-eyed children faced their new teacher, Miss Florence Gittinger for their first day of learning. Of the thirty-one, eleven of the original class remained to graduate in 1945, namely; Elise Buitenwerf, Joan DeWit, Cecil Fifer, Clarence Gilbert, John Barry Kane, Lowell McFadden, Lawrence McFadden, Keith McFadden, Harold Roberts, Harold Timmons and Raymond Steenhoek.

In '41 we started our first year in Prairie City High School with thirty-five new classmates: Ralph Birkenholtz, Marjorie Briles, Betty Buckingham, Elise Buitenwerf, Harold Dalton, Wanda Lea De Bruyn, Lester De Vries, Joan De Wit, Cecil Fifer, Clarence Gilbert, Pete Gulling, Ray Decker, Nettie Helm, Thayne Jack, Wayne Kain, John Barry Kane, Keith McFadden, Lawrence McFadden, Lowell McFadden, Henry Plate, Ronald Riley, Harold Roberts, Audrey Schackelford, Marcia Ann Schuttinga, Irene Steenhoek, Raymond Steenhoek, Marilyn Strain, Harold Timmons, Joe Timmins, Wendall Travis, Robert Vanderhart, Alberta VanHorn, Robert Vandywyk, Wilbur Van Ryswyk, and Joan Van Zee.

In the fall of '42 twenty-nine scholars, who had lost some of their timidity and gained some dignity, started their sophomore year. Six of our former classmates didn't return.

We began the junior year with everyone except Henry Plate, Irene Steenhoek, and Pete Gulling. Thus we ended the junior year with great anticipation of the coming school term.

This brings us to the close of thirteen laborious but enjoyable years. The graduates of the year are: Marjorie Briles, Betty Buckingham, Elise Buitenwerf, Harold Dalton, Wanda Lea De Bruyn, Robert De Kock, Lester DeVries, Joan DeWit, Cecil Fifer, Clarence Gilbert, Nettie Helm, John Barry Kane, Lawrence McFadden, Lowell McFadden, Keith McFadden, Harold Roberts, Marcia Ann Schuttinga, Raymond Steenhoek, Harold Timmons, Joe Timmins, Robert Vanderhart, Alberta Van Horn, Wilbur Van Ryswyk, and Gerard Vander Leest.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of Prairie City High, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this our last Will and Testament:

Gerard Vander Leest wills his wavy locks to Larvin Pulver.
Lawrence Mc Fadden wills his ability to sit in the front of the assembly and mind his own business to Wilbur Birkenholtz.
Marjorie Briles wills her "70 words a minute" to all who "aspire".

Raymond Steenhoek leaves his height to Wayne Stravers, who can really use it.

Harold Timmons wills his lost articles to whoever finds them.

Alberta VanHorn wills her cheery smile to Barbara J. Schakel.

Wilbur Van Ryswyk and Robert Vander Hart will their "party loyalty" to good politicians.

Nettie Helm wills her ability as a columnist to some unfortunate junior.

Joe Timmins wills his ability to skip school to all good students who never thought of such a thing.

Betty Jo Buckingham wills her acting ability to Iola Larinus (with her glamour she should rate very well).

Marcia Ann wills her Model "A" Ford to her sister, Neola, to drive to school next year.

John Barry Kane and Keith McFadden leave their "T" to anyone who can make it run-----they don't have too much luck.

Wanda Lea DeBryun leaves her artistic ability in drawing to all who have a "yen" for such pleasures.

Joan DeWit wills her carefree ways to all the downhearted.

Clarence Gilbert leaves his football suit to George Patterson-----think it will fit George?

Elise Buitenwerf wills her ability to play the piano to the future accompanist of the music groups.

Cecil Fifer wills his vocabulary to Dwight Jack.

Harold Roberts and Lowell Mc Fadden will their "way with the Colfax girls" to Warren Ray Booher.

Bob De Kock wills his ability to play his trombone to Joan Honnold.

Lester DeVries wills his ability to work Physics problems to the "Willing to Learn".

Harold Dalton wills his ability to be late to school in the morning to some early soul.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto set our hand and seal on this the 10th day of May, 1945 A. D.

CLASS PROPHECY

This is your man on the street speaking from Prairie City, Iowa. We are standing in front of Gypsy Elise's Tea Room located on the corner of 5th and Mulberry. The 30,000 inhabitants are all out today celebrating the tenth annual Hoosier Convention. Here comes a man who looks very much like----yes, it is the mayor of this thriving metropolis, Cecil Fifer. Would you like to tell the radio audience who made this day of celebration possible, Sir?

"I did. I appointed the committees of Appropriations, Decorations, Refresherations, not to mention Conglomerations, and everything else to make this day unforgettable."

Thank you, Mayor. Now we have a young lady beside us. She is wearing a red satin blouse, green breeches, and is carrying a ferocious looking black snake. She needs it with people like my right hand man Lester around. Les is hoarse from barking at her. What can you say for yourself Miss?

"Ain't got much time. M'names Betty Jo Buckingham, jest call me Buck. I came all the way from Albuquerque to show my trick dogs here. Oh, there's my sweetie. He came with me to bathe the dogs--Oh, Clarence, Clarence Gilbert."

Goodbye, Buck. As she was talking folks, Snapping Joe Timmins the cameraman passed by. He was murmuring something about getting a picture of the famous lecturer, Harold Dalton and his pretty secretary Joan De Wit. Well here we have a little news, boy. Want to say something in the mike, Sonny?

"Yep, my pop told me to. My pop is Harold Timmons the Watkins man who sells vanilla, spices and and and--"

Wait a minute, boy. This can't be a commercial. What is that whistle for, Les? Oh, I see. It is that pretty little trapeze artist, Wanda Lea and her partner husband, Wilbur. And off to my right I see the famous violinist, Gerard Vander Leest, and his accompanist, "Pete the Pounder". Gerard was hiding the secret passion to become a great violinist, when he used to miss school frequently.

Now here comes a troop of children; maybe we can get a word from their escort. What is this, Madam, a Sunday School Picnic?

"Oh my no, I'm Marcia, matron of the Keith McFadden Orphan's Home. Don't you recognize your old classmate, Barry?"

Why, of course, Marcia. So you're working for Keith, I have not heard from him since he made his first million....Hey! watch out, mister; can't you see this is a mike?

"Well, excuse me--I'm Lawrence McFadden, and I'm looking for Nettie Helm of the Helm Matrimonial Bureau. She promised to get me a wife in two days--so long!"

Good luck, Sam! Did you hear all the crashing and banging folks? Well, we had a little accident. Two women drivers collided. One was Marjorie Briles, taxi driver, and the other was the girl I remember as Alberta Van Horn, now a Prairie City house wife.

Well, Ladies and Gentlemen, I must be going now, for here come the street cleaners. I wouldn't move but you see they're my old buddies, Lowell and Harold, still sweeping through life together.

This is your announcer J. B. Kane signing off for the Trah Rednav Vitamin Pills---spelled backwards the Vander Hart Cure All Company. So Long!

The following lettermen will return: Eugene Osborn and John Young. We wish the boys many victories on their new athletic field.

BOY BASKETBALL

The basketball boys enjoyed a successful season. They averaged more gains than losses leaving a fine record. They displayed skill which made Prairie City High School proud.

Next year we will miss the graduating seniors: Harold Timmons, Lowell Mc Fadden, Lawrence Mc Fadden, Raymond Steenhoek, and the service will probably call Max Schuttinga. Darrell Steenhoek will be the only letterman returning. We leave our wishes for Good Luck to next year's team.

LETTER CLUB OF '45

The Prairie City High School Letter Club was organized by a group of ambitious athletes in the early thirties. The purpose of the club was to create more interest in athletics.

There are three officers: president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer. The vice-president is elected from the junior class and automatically becomes president the following year. The secretary-treasurer may be elected from any class, other than the senior class.

The members now holding office are: president, Lawrence McFadden; vice-president, Max Schuttinga; secretary-treasurer, Ramona Wiggins.

Anyone, who has been awarded a letter in athletics and has been voted in by a two-thirds majority of the old members is eligible for membership in the club. A meeting or session may be called at any time desired by the president.

The 1944 and '45 members consisted of twenty-two athletes. They have earned letters by participating in football, basketball or baseball, and also cheerleaders. Letters in basketball were awarded too late for this annual.
